If I find no home in this world

If I find no joy in her finest pearls

Then I must confess in view of this verse 2

If I see no justice that will satisfy

If I find no answers to these thoughts of mine

When the ones I love are no longer here

And when heaven holds all that I hold dear

Then I must confess in view of this

For I was born for another world

D Bm D Bm G

...For another world
